

JONATHAN SIDE TABLE

At Made Goods we love designing with two seemingly opposite materials to make one stunning, cohesive piece. The Jonathan is a perfect example of this, combining man-made white resin with the organic beauty of teak logs. Thanks to the accent or side table's rectangular shape, and the way it's crafted, the wood's rings create the pattern on its top surface, while the logs' knotty lengthwise cross sections can be seen on its sides.
